Hook and his buddies parachuted into the hands of angry German civilians, who chased them with barn forks. German soldiers poured the civilians and took the Americans in charge. For a time Lt. Hook was held in a prisoner-of-war camp at Stalag Luft 1. Later, as Russian forces moved into that sector of Germany he was transferred to Nuremberg and then to Munich. He was liberated at the end of the war and was released from the military service in January, 1946.

SCHOOL BOARD DIFFERS WITH STATE ON SIZE OF AUDITORIUM

The Gettysburg school system and the state Department of Public Instruction are currently deadlocked over the size an auditorium should be built at the local high school.

Dr. Lloyd C. Keefe and Joint School Board President Ralph D. Wickerham revealed the disagreement in reporting to the executive committee of the Gettysburg joint school board, meeting at the high school here Monday night, the status of the planned addition to the local high school.

The Gettysburg joint system's high school addition to be built at the north side of the present high school building, is to include an auditorium and a number of classrooms.

800 Or 1,500 Seats

Keefe and Wickerham said the building committee of the state Department of Public Instruction had given its approval to the additional classrooms, but disagreed with the proposed construction of a 1,500-seat auditorium.

Members of the state department's building committee held that an 800-seat auditorium would be sufficiently large to take care of the student body at the high school.

Keefe said the state group holds that the junior high school and senior high school should hold separate assemblies and that 800 seats would be enough for either.

Hope For Eventual Okay

All of the executive committee members were agreed, according to their discussion, that it would be useless to build an 800-seat auditorium. "The present 640 seat auditorium is too small," Dr. Wickerham noted, "and in a few years an 800-seat auditorium would be too small."

An auditorium is something you build for 25 years or so, and there is no sense building one that will be too small in a couple of years. An auditorium isn't like a classroom, you just can't knock out a wall and make it in. Besides the major cost is in erecting the building, and the lower cost of an 800-seat as compared to a 1,500-seat auditorium would not make it worthwhile to build a smaller one."

Keefe and others held out hope that the state committee would eventually agree to permit the larger auditorium. Director Paul M. Rohrbaugh observed: "The state apparently does not realize how fast our school population is growing, nor is it considering the changes that will probably come within a few years. Eventually we are going to have to have a sort of junior (Please Turn to Page 8)

TENTATIVE OKAY GIVEN $391,000 SCHOOL BUDGET

A budget of approximately $391,000 was tentatively approved for the coming year by the Gettysburg joint school board's executive committee Monday evening at a meeting in the superintendent's office at the local high school.

The exact amount of the budget could not be determined because the executive committee added a steam table for the cafeteria to the amount originally listed in the finance committee's recommendations and no one had any idea of the cost.

The original figures presented by the finance committee called for outlay of $377,753.45, or about $900 less than the estimated $378,625.03 it will cost to carry the school system through the current year.

Plan Driver Education

To that original estimate, the joint committee added a driver education program, an additional secretary for the high school, an additional music teacher, purchase of furniture for the industrial arts department of the high school and the steam table, a total which will add about $14,000 to the original budget.

Final decision on the budget will come next month when the entire joint board meets for one of its periodic sessions.

The additional amounts will cause an increase in the sums that will have to be paid into the jointure by the various school districts comprising the system. The estimated receipts listed on the original budget called for Gettysburg to pay $145,474.08; Cumberland, $64,066.28; Straban, $60,967.83; Franklin, $42,497.22; Mt. Joy, $26,150.03; Freedom, $15,169.48; Highland, $13,008.53. Other income was listed as vocational appropriation, $4,600; non-resident tuition, $4,320, and other receipts, $1,500.

Teachers' Pay Up

The budget includes $284,610 for teachers' salaries, an increase of approximately $11,000 over the $273, (Please Turn to Page 2)

WHY VOTE?

That question is often asked by intelligent American citizens. They infer that their own single vote does not count in the final election result. They insinuate that, because they are not sitting in the higher councils of the political parties, they are not expected to vote. This is the most un-American theory one can conceive.

Every loyal American citizen, man or woman, should feel duty bound to cast his or her ballot in every public election, regardless of what office is to be filled. It is only by the personal voting expression of each American that this country can survive and grow and maintain its position in a free world.

In 1948 approximately 3,700,000 Pennsylvanians voted in the Presidential election. Yet there were more than 7,000,000 eligible voters in this great state at that time. That means that more than 3,300,000 men and women either couldn't or wouldn't vote four years ago.

But Pennsylvania was not alone.

In the 48 states there were 95,000,000 eligible voters and only a little more than 48,000,000 cast their ballot. That is just about one half. Why did half of our voters shirk their duty?

Let's not have it occur again this year in Pennsylvania.

We appeal to every voter to cast his ballot in the primary election on April 22. Be proud of your choice of candidates. Stand up and be counted among those who are proud of the privilege of being an American, a free citizen, who has the right and the authority to select the men and women he wishes to hold public office.

Plan now to attend The Gettysburg Times annual cooking school, Gettysburg, May 6, 7 and 8. Littlestown, May 12 and 13. South Mountain Fairgrounds Memorial Auditorium, May 15 and 16.

2 SITES OFFERED TO CHAMBER FOR FACTORY HERE

Two sites have been offered the Chamber of Commerce for a proposed factory here, it was reported at a meeting of the board of directors of the chamber Monday night in its office in the Kadel building.

The offers were made in response to a letter received last week from Sherill, Sherill and company, York real estate brokers, requesting information on available factory sites with railroad connections. The real estate firm said it had a client seeking a site for a factory which would employ approximately 300 persons.

The offers came from Raymond Deardorff, Biglerville, for a factory site of 15 acres or more on the Western Maryland at Seven Stars, and from Jesse A. Scott, for a site in Straban township just east of Gettysburg, also on the Western Maryland.

The chamber secretary, Mrs. Helen Snyder, was directed to secure more information, name of the concern and type of the factory. The information on the sites offered will also be turned over to the Western Maryland.

Two other crewmen suffered serious burns.

The giant, 10-engine bomber crashed in a farmer's field half mile northwest of the base, and burst into flames.

"We were awakened by this awful crash and as we got out of bed all we could see was a big fire. It made an awful explosion. It looked like it was only a block away from the house but it was a half mile. "I could tell from the shape it was a B-36 but it was all burning." A few minutes after the crash Alf said the bomber "is all flat now." The B-36, world's largest bomber and America's foremost atom bomb carrier, skidded through a fence that rings Fairchild.

Pieces of the plane were scattered over a wide area. Fairchild said the plane normally carries a crew of 15 but had two extra men on board this morning. The flight was described as a routine training mission.

The B-36 has a range of 10,000 miles with its four jet and six piston engines.

This was the second 3 1/2 million dollar B-36 destroyed at Fairchild. One crashed and burned while landing at the base, eight miles west of Spokane, last winter. All the crewmen escaped before it caught fire.

55 Kiddies From Orphanage Guests

All of the 55 boys and girls at the Hoffman orphanage were brought to Gettysburg Monday afternoon by members of the Gettysburg Lions club for the matinee showing of "Snow White and The Seven Dwarfs" at the Majestic theater where they were guests of Manager Sydney Poppay.

After the show the boys and girls were taken to the Shelter House where the Lions club supplied chocolate sundaes, pretzels and cokes and the Lions' president, Fred S. Faber, gave each of the youngsters a chocolate covered Easter egg.

The group from the orphanage was accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Leeming, wife of the superintendent, and other members of the staff there. Eleven cars of local Lions were used to bring the children here and return them to the orphanage. The Lions' part of the affair was arranged by J. B. Collins, chairman of the program committee.

No meeting of the Lions club was held Monday evening but Chairman Collins announced that next Monday the club will be shown a color film of the 1951 International Lions convention at Atlantic City.

300 Chinese Reds Are Killed Or Wounded By Large Tank Force; Negotiators Meet For 25 Sec.

Munsan, April 15 (AP)— Korean truce negotiators met for 25 seconds today — just long enough to run through their pat routine of the past week—no business.

Meanwhile, the time for resuming crucial talks on prisoner exchange still was up in the air. Peiping radio said last night the U. N. command had advised the Reds it was not ready to take up again the conference on how to exchange prisoners of war.

The Reds proposed Sunday that the talks be resumed. These were recessed April 4 to permit both sides to work separately on possible solutions.

The Reds had insisted on forced repatriation of prisoners. The Allies demanded the right of choice for each prisoner.

There has been some indication the two parties in off-the-record meetings prior to April 4 worked out a secret formula for exchanging prisoners and that the Allies are reworking their list of prisoners to bring it in line with the formula.

Two Big Obstacles

The two truce supervision issues — Russia's role in post-armistice Korea and the question of rebuilding North Korean military airfields — are considered open to solution once agreement is reached on the critical prisoner exchange problem.

The Allies want a ban on military airfield reconstruction and oppose Red nomination of Russia as a neutral truce observer.

The last five meetings on truce supervision have taken up four minutes in all. Tuesday's dialogue went like this:

Chinese Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang: "Has your side anything to say?"

U. S. Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison: "No."

Fang: "Since your side has nothing new to say we suggest that we recess."

Harrison: "We agree."

78 PROPERTIES SOLD IN MARCH FOR $558,440

Adams countians sold 78 properties for a total of $558,440 during March, according to the monthly report made by Chief Assessor William G. Weaver to the state Tax Equalization board.

The estimate of value of the properties is based on the one percent state tax imposed on all transfers of property. The property transfers brought $6,209.20 into the coffers of the state and federal governments. State tax stamps totalled $5,584.40. The federal tax stamps totalled $624.80.

Of the 78 properties sold 22 were listed as farms. "The total price of the farms was given as $241,700, according to the state tax imposed upon them.

The number of properties sold in March was more than double the 33 transactions listed in February. So far the state has received $6,727.50 from the county through its new tax on deeds. In February the tax on deeds totalled $1,143.10.

Of the properties transferred in March, 18 are listed as lots, 31 as houses, 22 as farms and the remainder are listed as commercial. (Continued on Page 6)

Postpone Teachers' Workshop To 1953

The next teachers' workshop will be held in Adams county in the summer of 1953, the county Elementary Principals association decided Monday evening at a meeting held in the office of the county superintendent of schools at the court house.

Because workshops have been held for the past four years, it was decided to "omit a year" before resuming the series, in order to permit teachers to carry out other activities during the summer months.

Plans were also discussed for attendance at the annual elementary principals dinner to be held at Carlisle April 28 by the Southern Convention district of the PSEA.

Vice President Wilson Wenk presided at the meeting in the absence of President Clyde McCauslin.

TWO GAMES CANCEL

TRUMAN READY FOR 1ST GAME AT WASHINGTON

Washington, April 15 (AP)—The 352 major league baseball season officially opens today at exactly 2:57 p. m. (EST).

That's the scheduled time for resident Truman to throw out the first ball in an American league game between the Boston Red Sox and the Washington Senators.

The starting pitchers: Mel Parcell, who won 18 and lost 11 last year, was the Red Sox hope. Washington's choice, Bob Porterfield, won nine and lost eight.

Biggest attractions for the sellout crowd of 30,000 will be a fancy pregame show, and Ted Williams, Red Sox outfielder.

Williams goes into the Marines May 2. Many observers think this may be his last appearance in baseball, because, they say, he will be 30 old when he gets out.

Everyone is pretty certain how Parcell and Porterfield will pitch, Parcell is a left hander; Porterfield right-handed.

Truman, though, presents more of a puzzle. He can pitch (A) with his left hand, (B) with his right and, or (C) with both.

Since Truman has said he won't try for re-election, this probably will be his last appearance as a presidential pitcher.

Pre-Game Activities

All opening games here stress the re-game shindig and the prancing bout of celebrities.

But, maybe surprisingly, some good baseball has been played, too. Francis Stann, Washington Evening Star sports columnist, says the reatest opening day game by far was the one played April 13, 1926.

The opening pitchers that cold, leak day were the great Walter Johnson for the Senators, and that ne knuckleballer, Ed Rommel, for ne Philadelphia Athletics.

Charley Dawes, the vice president, drew out the first ball.

Johnson and Rommel were superb. coreless inning followed scoreless inning. Finally, in the 15th inning, ne Senators scored, to win 1-0.

It was the sixth time that Johnson had won an opening game on a but-out. It was Johnson's 111th hutout in a brilliant career.

Incidentally, the fellow who ingled to open the inning and later cored the run is still around.

He's Bucky Harris, manager of ne Senators.

Robinson Is Picked To Win

Chicago, April 15 (AP)—Ray Robinson's middleweight title defense against mauler Rocky Graziano tomorrow night is expected to be a average slugfest that will fall far hort of going the scheduled 15 ound distance.

Most observers believe the brawl ill either be stopped by the referee, or a TKO or end in a 10-count knockout before the 10th round.

The only surprise, they say, would e a Graziano victory. Champion Sugar Ray is heavily backed to ring p his 131st professional win and core his 36th kayo since he flashed ut of the amateur ranks as a 20-ear-old sensation in 1940.

Robinson is a solid 3-1 choice for he televised fight. The prospect of n action-packed scrap, carrying omewhat the aura of brutality and ood-spilling of a bull fight, may e more than 19,000 customers to Chicago stadium.

Both fighters can be remembered, or their savagery and spunk in revious Chicago stadium brawls.

Simmons Signs Up With The Phillies

Philadelphia, April 15 (AP)—Curt Simmons, 22-year-old lefthander whose return from army duty has bolstered the Philadelphia Phillies' pennant hopes, is signed, sealed and delivered for the 1952 season.

Simmons signed his new contract after a session with Owner Bob Carpenter yesterday. Terms of the pact were not disclosed but Carpenter admitted Simmons received a raise over his last contract.

Simmons recently returned to the U. S. after serving with the 28th Infantry Division in Germany. He was called to active duty in September, 1950, toward the end of the National league season. Simmons is believed to have received $15,000 for his efforts in 1950.

He has said it will take him several weeks of conditioning before he will be ready to take his turn on the mound.

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT

New York, April 15 (AP)—In the Lambs club at the far end of the bar there is a large, round table, and over one of the chairs is a lifelike portrait of the late John J. McGraw, held by many to have been the greatest baseball manager of them all.

This was where the little Napoleon held almost nightly court when his Giants were in town. The oldtimers around the Lambs club like to recall that if there was to be a bit of trouble on a given night, starting with loud words and winding up with a swinging of fists, this was a likely place for it. John, they say, was ever ready, especially if some tenderfoot could be conned into addressing him as "Mugsy," a nickname he disliked.

Over the end of the bar there also is a splendid likeness of the late John Barrymore, who was an actor member of the club. That, they tell you, is where John always stood. The room is steeped in sentiment, and it seemed a fine place to get the latest word on the little league from Col. W. H. (Cappy) Wells (ret.), who is its director of public relations.

Started 13 Years Ago

Cappy, himself, is more or less overwhelmed by the little league. All he knows for sure is that the country is up to its hips in little baseball players. All the hullabaloo about the start of the big league baseball races today leaves him singularly unimpressed.

"Last time I counted," he said, "we had 776 leagues and 3,333 teams in 38 states and a lot of foreign countries. No telling how many there are at this moment. They keep coming at us. Down in Panama they started playing in January."

The little league, Cappy said, consulting his notes, originated only 13 years ago this coming April 21 at Williamsport, Pa., when a public spirited citizen named Carl Stotz decided kids up to 13 should be given a chance to play organized ball, complete with uniforms. Stotz, who still is commissioner of the league, must feel like a man who started raising rabbits in his living room.

"You wouldn't think there were so many kids in the world," said their director of public relations. "What we've got now is farm clubs. They decide to organize a little league in a town, say six teams. Know how many kids turn out—400, that's how many."

"So the managers hold tryouts and pick their clubs, and all the others go into the farm system. All they get are caps and shoes. They have a regular league of their own, a sort of minor little league, and they play a schedule, too. The managers in the main league watch these little fellows and as they lose their own players they bid for them. There's always a stock of kids coming up."

In the unlikely event that some reader has not previously heard of the little league, it perhaps should be explained that the youngsters play on a diamond two-thirds regulation size and with a ball somewhat less lively than the store brand lest a third-baseman get scalped. The batter must wear a protective helmet. At the last broad estimate, a quarter-million kids belonged to the league.

HUGE THRONGS EXPECTED FOR MAJOR OPENERS

By JOE REICHLER

New York, April 15 (AP)—A quarter of a million fans in eight cities were expected to jam ball parks today as the 1952 major league baseball season got underway.

Despite the loss and impending loss of such topnotch performers as Ted Williams, Joe DiMaggio, Bobby Doerr, Gerry Coleman, Monte Irvin, Willie Mays and others, the new season gives promise of new thrills and excitement to match those of previous campaigns.

All clubs will present new faces. The new names include Billy Reed, Ed Mathews, Toby Atwell, Dave Williams, Bob Del Greco, Dick Hall, Scooter Koshorek, Jim Fritley, Hec Rodriguez, Jim Rivera, George Schmees, Leo Thomas, Clint Courtney and Ben Taylor.

Predict Titles

The managers were optimistic, with Al Lopez of the Cleveland Indians brashly predicting an American league flag. Manager Charlie Dressen of Brooklyn said his Dodgers ought to win the National league.

The odds-makers agree with Dressen and Lopez and have installed the Indians and Dodgers as favorites Brooklyn 8-5, Cleveland at 9-5.

The Giants and Yankees are second choices, the former at 5-2 and the latter 2-1.

President Truman, the nation's No. 1 fan, and only switch hurler since William Howard Taft, started the Presidential pitching custom in 1910, was to toss out the first ball in Washington where the Senators engaged the Red Sox.

The day's largest crowd of some 52,000, including Queen Juliana of The Netherlands, was expected to attend the Tigers-Browns' opener in Detroit.

Open At Night

The Cardinals, who inaugurated the night opener in 1950, again will raise the curtain with an after-dark affair in St. Louis before 20,000. Pittsburgh's Murry Dickenson (20-16) was slated to go against Gerry Staley (19-13).

The Giants expected 35,000 for their opener with the Philadelphia Phils. Sal Maglie (23-6) was set to start for the defending National league champions. He was to be opposed by Robin Roberts (21-15).

JOHNS HOPKINS NINE TO PLAY ON WEDNESDAY

Gettysburg college will try again to open its baseball season Wednesday afternoon when Johns Hopkins university is slated to play here at 3 o'clock.

The Bullets were originally listed to open their season April 5 against Elizabethtown but were rained out.

Coach Henry T. Bream, making his debut as Bullets coach, will probably stick to the lineup he had intended to use against Elizabethtown. That will mean George Hare, veteran outfielder-pitcher, will open on the mound with Ray Reider doing the catching.

The starting infield will include Bixby or Oatman, first base, Dudley, second base; Keller, shortstop and Shaffer, third base. Burns, Snaulis and McClennen are expected to patrol the outfield.

Johns Hopkins got off to a good start last week by shutting out Franklin and Marshall 6-0.

Blades, who gave out four hits and fanned eight Diplomats batters, is expected to start against the Bullets.

The Adams County Scholastic league was scheduled to open this afternoon with Biglerville at New Oxford, East Berlin at Fairfield, and Boiling Springs at Littlestown. York, Springs and Newville play Wednesday on the latter's field.

Delay Work On Softball Field

Postponement of work to re-construction the local softball field, scheduled for Wednesday evening, was announced this morning by Johnny Knox, league president.

Heavy showers during the night have left the field very wet. Knox said the work will be done Wednesday evening, April 23, at 6 o'clock. Anyone interested is invited to help with the work.

TAKE TIME OUT

Too many useful persons have died too young. They felt they had to keep working, with no time out in which to think, relax and play. Life needs to be happily balanced, just like our diet, so that the highest efficiency may result.

People who take time out for the enjoyment of some interesting hobby live longest. A new set of interests are created and the mind gets a playtime. Take time out to read good books—books that have stood the test of the ages. There is no habit that gives such high returns as that for the love of books. You associate with the greatest minds of the world when you read carefully selected books.

Take time out for the enjoyment of some sport, or many sports. Enter into them if you can, but take an interest in them anyway. Contests are always inspiring and stimulating to the mind. If they were not our newspapers would not give so much space to their reporting. Skill and brains count in all sports.

Take regular vacations. Never think that you can't be spared. You will return to your occupation renewed in mind and spirit. Be the guest of Nature and seek out the mysteries and wonders of the great out-of-doors. Roam the fields and forests. Study the animals and birds. Breathe the fresh air. Look upon the endless examples of God's creation. Never cease to wonder! Change is medicine.

Get away from yourself. Be one with people—all people. There is a story in every life. In others we discover much of ourselves. No matter how long any of us lives, there are interesting bits of knowledge that we never learn. But take time out to discover things that you might not know except by discovery.

Take time out to meditate and to pray. Prayer sweeps out the mind and heart and leaves both clean. And there is relaxation and peace to prayer. We are God's guest when we pray.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Mind the Spark!"

THE OPENING GAME

Gone are the wooden fences and the wild cat stands of old. Where seats for a dime or nickel to the neighborhood fans were sold.

Gone are the favorite knot holes the small boys fought to claim, and gone are the aunt and uncle who died for the opening game.

Gone are the floral horseshoe, and the mayor, and the speech he made. Each year to the home team captain, and gone is the street parade.

Gone is the old-time umpire who called out the pitcher's name. With a bow to the grandstand people at the start of the opening game.

Once more is the season starting, but baseball has changed, somehow. The old out curve is a slider, and the drop is a knuckler now. The hunt is a play discarded, for the ball isn't quite the same. Time has changed me more than a little, but I'll be at the opening game.

ALL-AMERICAN TELLS ITS STORY

Washington, April 15 (AP)—An All-American Airways witness said Monday the only solution to the Cumberland, Md., airport problem "is a new and adequate airport in a better location."

Testifying at a Civil Aeronautics board hearing on All-American's application to continue operations in seven eastern states, Colin H. McIntosh, vice president in charge of operations, outlined these views on Cumberland:

1. All American desires to abandon operations at Cumberland because it now can serve the city safely only on such a limited basis as to make it uneconomical.

2. Obstruction lights on the mountains surrounding the valley in which the port is located might be erected and other navigational aids installed. But because of the height of the mountains and the narrowness of the valley, operations still would have to be limited.

3. The only solution is a new airport at another location.

McIntosh's reference to Cumberland was included in testimony in which he told CAB Examiner James S. Keith that the lines' operations are seriously affected in the whole seven-state area because "the operations of All-American x x x are conducted within a geographical area which is subject to the combined influence of some of the worst flying weather and heaviest density of air traffic experienced in the United States."

These adverse flying conditions, added to the cost of short-haul operations make it necessary, he said, for All-American to eliminate unprofitable service wherever possible.

TRUMAN READY FOR 1ST GAME AT WASHINGTON

Washington, April 15 (AP)—The 32 major league baseball season officially opens today at exactly 2:57 p. m. (EST).

That's the scheduled time for resident Truman to throw out the first ball in an American league game between the Boston Red Sox and the Washington Senators.

The starting pitchers: Mel Parcell, who won 18 and lost 11 last year, was the Red Sox hope. Washington's choice, Bob Porterfield, won one and lost eight.

Biggest attractions for the sellout crowd of 30,000 will be a fancy pregame show, and Ted Williams, Red Sox outfielder.

Williams goes into the Marines May 2. Many observers think this may be his last appearance in baseball, because, they say, he will be too old when he gets out.

Everyone is pretty certain how Parcell and Porterfield will pitch. Parcell is a left hander; Porterfield is right-handed.

Truman, though, presents more of a puzzle. He can pitch (A) with his left hand, (B) with his right and, or (C) with both.

Since Truman has said he won't try for re-election, this probably will be his last appearance as a presidential pitcher.

Pre-Game Activities

All opening games here stress the re-game shindig and the prancing about of celebrities.

But, maybe surprisingly, some good baseball has been played, too.

Francis Stann, Washington Evening Star sports columnist, says the greatest opening day game by far as the one played April 13, 1926.

The opening pitchers that cold, leaky day were the great Walter Johnson for the Senators, and that ne knuckleballer, Ed Rummel, for the Philadelphia Athletics.

Charley Dawes, the vice president, threw out the first ball.

Johnson and Rummel were superb. Johnson's first inning followed scoreless. Finally, in the 15th inning, the Senators scored, to win 1-0.

It was the sixth time that Johnson had won an opening game on a hit-out. It was Johnson's 11th hitout in a brilliant career.

Incidentally, the fellow who tried to open the inning and later scored the run is still around.

He's Bucky Harris, manager of the Senators.

ROBINSON IS PICKED TO WIN

Chicago, April 15 (AP)—Ray Robinson's middleweight title defense against mauler Rocky Graziano tomorrow night is expected to be a cage slugfest that will fall far short of going the scheduled 15 round distance.

Most observers believe the brawl will either be stopped by the referee or a TKO or end in a 10-count knockout before the 10th round.

The only surprise, they say, would be a Graziano victory. Champion sugar Ray is heavily backed to ring up his 131st professional win and core his 86th kayo since he flashed out of the amateur ranks as a 20-year-old sensation in 1940.

Robinson is a solid 3-1 choice for the televised fight. The prospect of an action-packed scrap, carrying somewhat the aura of brutality and blood-spilling of a bull fight, may be more than 19,000 customers to Chicago stadium.

Both fighters can be remembered for their savagery and spunk in previous Chicago stadium brawls.

Mystery Sniper Kills Young Camper

Viola, N. Y., April 15 (AP)—A mysterious rifleman last night shot to death one of a group of teen-agers camping in the Ramapo mountains near Bear Mountain Park.

Police, who started checking on hundreds of New York metropolitan area youths camped in the mountains, said they knew of no motive or the shooting. There have been reports of feuds over camp sites among groups of youths.

The victim of the shooting was John Patrick Dooley, 18, of Brooklyn, who was camping with seven choolmates during the spring vacation week. The killer escaped into the woods, and was sought today by hundreds of square miles of rugged terrain.

Dooley's companions said the killer was a youth less than 20 who said: "We will be back in the morning and clean out the rest of you."

Simmons Signs Up With The Phillies

Philadelphia, April 15 (AP)—Curt Simmons, 22-year-old left-hander whose return from army duty has bolstered the Philadelphia Phillies' pennant hopes, is signed, sealed and delivered for the 1952 season.

Simmons signed his new contract after a session with Owner Bob Carpenter yesterday. Terms of the pact were not disclosed but Carpenter admitted Simmons received a raise over his last contract.

Simmons recently returned to the U. S. after serving with the 28th Infantry Division in Germany. He was called to active duty in September, 1950, toward the end of the National League season. Simmons is believed to have received $15,000 for his efforts in 1950.

He has said it will take him several weeks of conditioning before he will be ready to take his turn on the mound.

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT

New York, April 15 (AP)—In the Lamb club at the far end of the bar there is a large, round table, and over one of the chairs is a lifelike portrait of the late John J. McGraw, held by many to have been the greatest baseball manager of them all.

This was where the little Napoleon held almost nightly court when his Giants were in town. The oldtimers around the Lamb club like to recall that if there was to be a bit of trouble on a given night, starting with loud words and winding up with a swinging of fists, this was a likely place for it. John, they say, was ever ready, especially if some tenderfoot could be conned into addressing him as "Mugsy," a nickname he disliked.

Over the end of the bar there also is a splendid likeness of the late John Barrymore, who was an actor member of the club. That, they tell you, is where John always stood. The room is steeped in sentiment, and it seemed a fine place to get the latest word on the little league from Col. W. H. (Cappy) Wells (ret.), who is its director of public relations.

Started 13 Years Ago

Cappy, himself, is more or less overwhelmed by the little league. All he knows for sure is that the country is up to its hips in little league players. All the hullabaloo about the start of the big league baseball races today leaves him singularly unimpressed.

"Last time I counted," he said, "we had 776 leagues and 3,333 teams in 38 states and a lot of foreign countries. No telling how many there are at this moment. They keep coming at us. Down in Panama they started playing in January."

The little league, Cappy said, consulting his notes, originated only 13 years ago this coming April 21 at Williamsport, Pa., when a public spirited citizen named Carl Stotz decided kids up to 13 should be given a chance to play organized ball, complete with uniforms. Stotz, who still is commissioner of the league, must feel like a man who started raising rabbits in his living room.

"You wouldn't think there were so many kids in the world," said their director of public relations. "What we've got now is farm clubs. They decide to organize a little league in a town, say six teams. Know how many kids turn out—400, that's how many."

"So the managers hold tryouts and pick their clubs, and all the others go into the farm system. All they get are caps and shoes. They have a regular league of their own, a sort of minor little league, and they play a schedule, too. The managers in the main league watch these little fellows and as they lose their own players they bid for them. There's always a stock of kids coming up."

In the unlikely event that some reader has not previously heard of the little league, it perhaps should be explained that the youngsters play on a diamond two-thirds regulation size and with a ball somewhat less lively than the store brand lest a third-baseman get scalped. The batter must wear a protective helmet. At the last broad estimate, a quarter-million kids belonged to the league.

HUGE THROGS EXPECTED FOR MAJOR OPENERS

By JOE REICHLER

New York, April 15 (AP)—A quarter of a million fans in eight cities were expected to jam ball parks today as the 1952 major league baseball season got underway.

Despite the loss and impending loss of such topnotch performers as Ted Williams, Joe DiMaggio, Bobby Doerr, Gerry Coleman, Monte Irvin, Willie Mays and others, the new season gives promise of new thrills and excitement to match those of previous campaigns.

All clubs will present new faces. The new names include Billy Reed, Ed Mathews, Toby Atwell, Dave Williams, Bob Del Greco, Dick Hall, Scooter Koshorek, Jim Fridley, Hec Rodriguez, Jim Rivera, George Schmees, Leo Thomas, Clint Courtney and Ben Taylor.

Predict Titles

The managers were optimistic, with Al Lopez of the Cleveland Indians brashly predicting an American league flag. Manager Charlie Dressen of Brooklyn said his Dodgers ought to win the National league.

The odds-makers agree with Dressen and Lopez and have installed the Indians and Dodgers as favorites Brooklyn 8-5, Cleveland at 9-5. The Giants and Yankees are second choices, the former at 5-2 and the latter 2-1.

President Truman, the nation's No. 1 fan, and only switch hurler since William Howard Taft, started the Presidential pitching custom in 1910, was to toss out the first ball in Washington where the Senators engaged the Red Sox.

The day's largest crowd of some 52,000, including Queen Juliana of The Netherlands, was expected to attend the Tigers-Browns' opener in Detroit.

Open At Night

The Cardinals, who inaugurated the night opener in 1950, again will raise the curtain with an after-dark affair in St. Louis before 20,000. Pittsburgh's Murry Dickson (20-16) was slated to go against Gerry Staley (19-13).

The Giants expected 35,000 for their opener with the Philadelphia Phils. Sal Maglie (23-6) was set to start for the defending National league champions. He was to be opposed by Robin Roberts (21-15).

Cold weather was expected to hold the crowd down to 10,000 at Boston where the Dodgers were guests of the Braves.

Philadelphia expected 25,000 to watch the Athletics tangle with the world champions Yankees and try to end righthander Vic Raschi's jinx over the A's. Raschi (21-10) holds a 20-2 lifetime mark against Philadelphia. The A's nominated Alex Kellner (11-14) to do their hurling.

The Chicago White Sox were hopeful of exceeding their record 1926 opening day crowd of 33,000 in their encounter with the Indians.

Cincinnati envisioned a 30,000 sellout in its traditional opener against the Cubs.

JOHNS HOPKINS NINE TO PLAY ON WEDNESDAY

Gettysburg college will try again to open its baseball season Wednesday afternoon when Johns Hopkins university is slated to play here at 3 o'clock.

The Bullets were originally listed to open their season April 5 against Elizabethtown but were rained out.

Coach Henry T. Bream, making his debut as Bullet coach, will probably stick to the lineup he had intended to use against Elizabethtown. That will mean George Hare, veteran outfielder-pitcher, will open on the mound with Ray Reider doing the catching.

The starting infield will include Bixby or Owings, first base; Dudley, second base; Keller, shortstop, and Shaffer, third base. Burns, Shaulis and McClennen are expected to patrol the outfield.

Johns Hopkins got off to a good start last week by shutting out Franklin and Marshall 6-0.

Blades, who gave out four hits and fanned eight Diplomat batters, is expected to start against the Bullets.

The Adams County Scholastic league was scheduled to open this afternoon with Biglerville at New Oxford, East Berlin at Fairfield, and Boiling Springs at Littlestown. York Springs and Newville play Wednesday on the latter's field.

Delay Work On Softball Field

Postponement of work to re-condition the local softball field, scheduled for Wednesday evening, was announced this morning by Johnny Knox, league president.

Heavy showers during the night have left the field very wet. Knox said the work will be done Wednesday evening, April 23, at 6 o'clock. Anyone interested is invited to help with the work.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Local Miscellany: The P. A. Miller company has purchased the entire interest of the Gettysburg Confectionery company, until recently composed of P. A. Miller and E. P. Wisotzky. The business of the new company will be conducted by P. A. Miller as manager and Geo. E. Stock as treasurer, in connection with the People's Cash Store.

A new front is being put in the store room now occupied by C. S. Mumper in the First National Bank building.

J. Harvey Stine has moved into the room formerly occupied by him in the Winter building, and the People's Cash store now occupy the room made vacant by Mr. Stine.

A dance and reception given by the G. A. band last Wednesday evening in Xavier hall to those who took part in the "Gettysburgians" and assisted at the oyster supper was largely attended.

C. A. Stoner, of this place, has associated with him in the nursery business, his brother, Jess E. Stoner, of Sedgewick, Kansas. The latter will move here and the new firm will carry on the business extensively.

Hon. R. Wm. Bream has put down a pavement in front of his property on Springs avenue.

A new bridge has been constructed under the supervision of the Highway committee across the Tiber, in rear of David McGuigan's residence, Chambersburg street.

Pius A. Miller has been appointed gas collector, in place of J. Louis Sowers, resigned.

Wedding Bells: On Wednesday at high noon a very beautiful wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Faber, Chambersburg street. The contracting parties were Miss Mary Hannah Hake, cousin of Mr. and Mrs. Faber, and Robert B. McClean, news editor of the Harrisburg Telegraph and former editor of the Star and Sentinel. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. T. J. Barkley, assisted by Rev. R. F. McClean, of Dauphin, father of the groom. Only the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony.

Miss Blanche Hake was maid of honor and Miss Josephine Beck was the flower girl. Master Fred Faber acted as ring bearer. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Mary Sheads.

The wedding in its entirety was one of beauty. After the ceremony a reception was given.

On Wednesday last, Clinton L. Mehning, son of Associate Judge and Mrs. Solomon Mehning, of Littlestown, was united in marriage to Miss Beulah R. Gitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Z. Gitt, also of Littlestown. The wedding, which was a very pretty one, took place at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frederick C. Seitz, of Hanover.

Miss Elizabeth Gettler was maid of honor and John Mehning was the best man. Miss Julia Fuhrman played Lohengrin's wedding march. The chorists were Misses Mae Cump, Ettie Crouse, Mable Gettler and Leona Weaver.

TAKE TIME OUT

Too many useful persons have died too young. They felt they had to keep working, with no time out in which to think, relax and play. Life needs to be happily balanced, just like our diet, so that the high efficiency may result.

People who take time out for the enjoyment of some interesting hobby live longest. A new set of interests are created and the mind gets a playtime. Take time out to read good books—books that have stood the test of the ages. There is no habit that gives such high returns as that for the love of books. You associate with the greatest minds of the world when you read carefully selected books.

Take time out for the enjoyment of some sport, or many sports. Enter into them if you can, but take an interest in them anyway. Contests are always inspiring and stimulating to the mind. If they were not our newspapers would not give so much space to their reporting. Skill and brains count in all sports.

Take regular vacations. Never think that you can't be spared. You will return to your occupation renewed in mind and spirit. Be the guest of Nature and seek out the mysteries and wonders of the great out-of-doors. Roam the fields and forests. Study the animals and birds. Breathe the fresh air. Look upon the endless examples of God's creation. Never cease to wonder! Change is medicine.

Get away from yourself. Be one with people—all people. There is a story in every life. In others we discover much of ourselves. No matter how long any of us lives, there are interesting bits of knowledge that we never learn. But take time out to discover things that you might not know except by discovery.

Take time out to meditate and to pray. Prayer sweeps out the mind and heart and leaves both clean. And there is relaxation and peace to prayer. We are God's guest when we pray.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Mind the Spark!"

THE OPENING GAME

Gone are the wooden fences and the wild cat stands of old. Where seats for a dime or nickel to the neighborhood fans were sold.

Gone are the favorite knot holes the small boys fought to claim.

And gone are the aunt and uncle who died for the opening game.

Gone are the floral horseshoe, and the mayor, and the speech he made.

Each year to the home team captain, and gone is the street parade.

Gone is the old-time umpire who called out the pitcher's name. With a bow to the grandstand people at the start of the opening game.

Once more is the season starting, but baseball has changed, somehow.

The old out curve is a slider, and the drop is a knuckler now.

The hunt is a play discarded, for the ball isn't quite the same. Time has changed me more than a little, but I'll be at the opening game.

ALL-AMERICAN TELLS ITS STORY

Washington, April 15 (AP)—An All-American Airways witness said Monday the only solution to the Cumberland, Md., airport problem "is a new and adequate airport in a better location."

Testifying at a Civil Aeronautics board hearing on All-American's application to continue operations in seven eastern states, Colin H. McIntosh, vice president in charge of operations, outlined these views on Cumberland:

1. All American desires to abandon operations at Cumberland because it now can serve the city safely only on such a limited basis as to make it uneconomical.

2. Obstruction lights on the mountains surrounding the valley in which the port is located might be erected and other navigational aids installed. But because of the height of the mountains and the narrowness of the valley, operations still would have to be limited.

3. The only solution is a new airport at another location.

McIntosh's reference to Cumberland was included in testimony in which he told CAB Examiner James S. Keith that the lines' operations are seriously affected in the whole seven-state area because "the operations of All-American x x x are conducted within a geographical area which is subject to the combined influence of some of the worst flying weather and heaviest density of air traffic experienced in the United States."

These adverse flying conditions, added to the cost of short-hop operations make it necessary, he said, for All-American to eliminate unprofitable service wherever possible.

Third Telephone Walkout Is Ended

New York, April 15 (AP)—The nation's strike-tangled communications wires were unravelling today with the settlement of a New Jersey telephone dispute bringing to three the number of walkouts ended.

But three other wire strikes still were unsettled, and one of these—against the Western Electric company—could nullify the effects of the three settlements by keeping phone workers from their jobs.

A contract agreement providing a $4-a-week pay increase and fringe benefits was reached early today at Newark, N. J., between the New Jersey Bell Telephone company and 10,000 striking operators, members of the CIO Communications Workers of America.

Ohio Bell Telephone workers ended their strike yesterday after obtaining pay boosts of $4-to-$7-a-week, similar to increases granted Michigan telephone workers last week. Federal mediators are working in New York to settle the strike of 16,000 CIO-CWA members against Western Electric, the Bell system's manufacturing subsidiary.

SEEKS NEW TRIAL
Pittsburgh, April 15 (AP)—Steve Nelson, convicted of violating the state's sedition laws, is seeking a new trial on grounds his constitutional rights were invaded. Basil Pollitt, attorney for Nelson, told the court yesterday Nelson acted as his own attorney during the original trial and said the state law is so intricate "it is impossible for a layman to protect his rights."

EARLY VOTE IN JERSEY IS LIGHT IN BAD WEATHER

Newark, N. J., April 15 (AP)—Low-lying skies and definitely unimproving weather contributed to light early voting today as industrial New Jersey registered its choice for the Republican presidential nomination.

Showers and even cooler temperatures were forecast for the day. And an "anything-can-happen" smog hung over the result as politicians disagreed on their predictions.

Sounds Cautious Note
Although Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was established as a favorite in today's primary, Arthur Vandenberg, Jr., deputy director of the general's national campaign, sounded a cautious note in the contest here with Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

"Anything can happen," Vandenberg told this reporter. "I think General Eisenhower is going to win, but I don't know if he will win by 50,000 or 200,000. And it would not surprise me to see Taft get three delegates or nine delegates."

Vandenberg spoke primarily of the Republican ballot's "beauty contest," the preferential poll which Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll has said should influence the state's 38 GOP convention delegates in voting at Chicago in July on the presidential nomination.

"He" May Get 35
This contest also has former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota as an added starter. But Stassen has been so badly shellacked elsewhere by both Taft and Eisenhower that he is not counted a serious contender.

The Republicans elect 19 delegates at large and 28 in districts Taft supporters are contesting for seven district posts and two at large, in addition to any "independent" candidates who might back him if they were elected.

Thus if Eisenhower proves to be as much of a front runner as a state newspaper survey forecast, at best he might get 38 delegates and at worst 29—unless Stassen or the independents pull a surprise. Even the 38 would leave Eisenhower behind Taft in elected Chicago delegates. Taft now has 201 to the general's 88.

MILLION DOLLAR FIRE AT INDIANA

Indiana, Pa., April 15 (AP)—Fire razed Leonard Hall, a two-story brick building housing 30 classrooms at Indiana State Teachers college last night. Damage unofficially was estimated at one million dollars.

Nobody was injured. Most of the college students were home for Easter holidays. Norman Sawyer, chief electrician at the college, said the cause of the blaze has not been determined.

It was the first destructive fire to hit the campus in 46 years. The last blaze leveled a boys' dormitory in 1906.

Besides the 30 classrooms, Leonard Hall housed six laboratories, a huge film library and valuable data on research work. All was lost.

The fire broke out shortly after 9 p.m. It was discovered by an unidentified student. Firemen from three communities brought it under control after three hours. The entire structure was gutted. Only a skeleton of the building was left standing.

Officials of the school said the loss

Coal Management Quietly Signs Pact

Washington, April 15 (AP)—The nation's soft coal producers, preparing for their expected 1952 wage battle with John L. Lewis, have quietly signed an industry pact which draws management's defense lines tighter. It was learned today.

The Bituminous Coal Operators association, principal bargaining group for the industry, has signed up most of the Indiana and Illinois soft coal producers. These operators have long held aloof from joining the national bargaining group, choosing to take their own contract chances with the United Mine Workers' boss.

The coal industry, alerted by government seizure of the steel mills and what it considers exorbitant government wage recommendations for Philip Murray's CIO Steelworkers, believes its new agreement will give it a great deal more resistance to Lewis' traditional divide-and-conquer strategy.

ADD EGGPLANT TO THE GARDEN

The domestic eggplant is a native of subtropical latitudes, probably in southern India where it grows wild. It is believed to have been introduced into Europe by early Asiatic invaders. It belongs to a large family of plants, including potato, tomato, tobacco, pepper, Jimson weed, belladonna, horse-nettle, petunia, Jerusalem cherry, bitter-sweet and many other well known weeds and ornamentals. It is an excellent vegetable to include in the home garden.

Because eggplants demand a long growing season and warm weather throughout that seed and seed must be sown indoors or in a greenhouse or in late March and the seedlings kept in individual pots or pans until all danger of frost is past in May. But in handling plants by this method it is necessary that woody, spindly growth be avoided and the plants promoted to vigorous, bushy formation. It is advisable to allow approximately 140 days from the date of sowing seed to the edible maturity of the first developed "fruits." In other words, seed sown the last week in March brings eggplants to harvest size in late August.

This long growing season may, of course, be further prolonged by dry weather in midsummer. Having plenty of moisture-holding organic matter in the soil and irrigating when the soil becomes dry will stimulate growth and improve eggplant quality. It is advisable to respect the sensitive habits of this vegetable and not move the plants to their final growing place until the soil is warm, preferably after early tomato plants are set out in May. In the meantime the plants should be hardened in the coldframe by judicious ventilation and introduction of direct sunshine by removal of the glass.

Eggplants are rather heavy feeders. Well rotted manure is beneficial, turned under and worked through the top 8 to 12 inches of soil. In addition commercial fertilizers are usually needed, a mixture ranging near a 8-10-8 strength, broadcast and worked into the top soil before plants are set out. Many commercial growers apply as much as a ton of fertilizer to the acre, although 1,200 to 1,400 pounds may prove sufficient—2 1/2 to 3 1/2 pounds per 100 square feet.

Plea beetles, small brown to black bugs that jump about actively, may attack eggplants early, gnawing many small holes in the leaves. Dusting infested plants promptly with rotenone is recommended. Unless these pests are killed off before they injure the leaves severely, plant stunting may result.

If dark green or other shade of plant lice infest the plants at any

COURT LIFTS BAN ON MERGER

New York, April 15 (AP)—An Appellate court decision has lifted a ban on the proposed merger of the Congregational, Christian churches and the Evangelical and Reformed church.

Proposed merger of the two Protestant denominations, with a total membership of almost two million, was restrained two years ago by state Supreme Court Justice

Meier Steinbrink. The Appellate division of the Supreme court reversed the decision yesterday by a four-to-one vote.

The Appellate court said: "The Civil courts do not interfere with ecclesiastical matters in which questions may be inquired into only insofar as it may be necessary to do so to determine the civil or property rights of the parties."

Opposing the planned merger, the Cadman Memorial church, of Brooklyn, and the Cadman Memorial Congregation society had sued the general council of the Congregational Christian churches. The Brooklyn church contended in the suit that merger would deprive individual congregations of "traditional autonomy."

Justice Steinbrink, in barring the merger after a 23-day hearing, also restrained the general council from using any congregational funds or properties to advance the proposed consolidation.

The Appellate court said the Brooklyn church had failed to "establish any rights or interests to the funds or other assets" which would bring the ecclesiastical question of merger into the jurisdiction of the civil courts.

Is there an ACCIDENT in YOUR calendar?

You hope not. But hoping is not enough!

Last year—the worst in 10 for traffic fatalities—37,500 people met death on the highways. They, too, had hoped that life would not end for them abruptly.

There is something you can do to avoid this needless tragedy—KNOW AND OBEY TRAFFIC LAWS. Such laws are common-sense rules of human conduct, plus expert engineering experience—and they are designed to protect YOU.

Drive within posted speed limits. Come to a halt at stop signs. Don't try to beat traffic lights. Note the highway markers and follow their messages of safety. Don't pass other cars on curves . . . on hills . . . or in no-passing zones. Signal when you are going to turn or stop suddenly. Slow down at sundown. Make allowances for weather conditions.

Above all, be guided by the great "unwritten" laws—caution . . . self control . . . and coo-

MEMORIALS OF ENDURING BEAUTY

Expression of Love

IN erecting a memorial to the memory of a dear one there is an opportunity to express love, sentiment and reverence in a manner which is at once lasting and exquisite. When a design of beauty is executed in one of nature's most enduring stones the effect is a sublime tribute to a memory which remains bright throughout the years.

Design, material and craftsmanship are the three things which insure beautiful and permanent memorials. You get them when you place your confidence in an established dealer.

EARLY VOTE IN JERSEY IS LIGHT IN BAD WEATHER

Newark, N. J., April 15 (AP)—Lowering skies and definitely unspring-like weather contributed to light early voting today as industrial New Jersey registered its choice for the Republican presidential nomination.

Showers and even cooler temperatures were forecast for the day. And an "anything-can-happen" smog hung over the result as politicians disagreed on their predictions.

Sounds Cautious Note

Although Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was established as a favorite in today's primary, Arthur Vandenberg, Jr., deputy director of the general's national campaign, sounded a cautious note in the contest here with Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

"Anything can happen," Vandenberg told this reporter. "I think General Eisenhower is going to win, but I don't know if he will win by 50,000 or 200,000. And it would not surprise me to see Taft get three delegates or nine delegates."

Vandenberg spoke primarily of the Republican ballot's "beauty contest," the preferential poll which Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll has said should influence the state's 38 GOP convention delegates in voting at Chicago in July on the presidential nomination.

"He" May Get 38

This contest also has former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota as an added straggler. But Stassen has been so badly shellacked elsewhere by both Taft and Eisenhower that he is not counted a serious contender.

The Republicans elect 10 delegates at large and 28 in districts. Taft supporters are contesting for seven district posts and two at large, in addition to any "independent" candidates who might back him if they were elected.

Thus if Eisenhower proves to be as much of a front runner as a state newspaper survey forecast, at best he might get 38 delegates and at worst 29—unless Stassen or the independents pull a surprise. Even the 38 would leave Eisenhower behind Taft in elected Chicago delegates. Taft now has 201 to the general's 88.

MILLION DOLLAR FIRE AT INDIANA

Indiana, Pa., April 15 (AP)—Fire razed Leonard Hall, a two-story brick building housing 30 classrooms at Indiana State Teachers college last night. Damage unofficially was estimated at one million dollars.

Nobody was injured. Most of the college students were home for Easter holidays. Norman Sawyer, chief electrician at the college, said the cause of the blaze has not been determined.

It was the first destructive fire to hit the campus in 46 years. The last blaze leveled a boys' dormitory in 1906.

Besides the 30 classrooms, Leonard Hall housed six laboratories, a huge film library and valuable data on research work. All was lost.

The fire broke out shortly after 9 p.m. It was discovered by an unidentified student. Firemen from three communities brought it under control after three hours. The entire structure was gutted. Only a skeleton of the building was left standing.

Officials of the school said the loss

Coal Management Quietly Signs Pact

Washington, April 15 (AP)—The nation's soft coal producers, preparing for their expected 1952 wage battle with John L. Lewis, have quietly signed an industry pact which draws management's defense lines tighter, it was learned today.

The Bituminous Coal Operators association, principal bargaining group for the industry, has signed up most of the Indiana and Illinois soft coal producers. These operators have long held aloof from joining the national bargaining group, choosing to take their own contract chances with the United Mine Workers' boss.

The coal industry, alerted by government seizure of the steel mills and what it considers exorbitant government wage recommendations for Philip Murray's CIO Steelworkers, believes its new agreement will give it a great deal more resistance to Lewis' traditional divide-and-conquer strategy.

ADD EGGPLANT TO THE GARDEN

The domesticated eggplant is a native of subtropical latitudes, probably in southern India where it grows wild. It is believed to have been introduced into Europe by early Asiatic invaders. It belongs to a large family of plants, including potato, tomato, tobacco, pepper, Jimson weed, belladonna, horse nettle, petunia, Jerusalem cherry, bitter-sweet and many other well known weeds and ornamentals. It is an excellent vegetable to include in the home garden.

Because eggplants demand a long growing season and warm weather throughout that season, seed must be sown indoors or in a greenhouse or hotbed in late March and the seedlings kept thriving in individual pots or pans until all danger of frost is past in May. But in handling plants by this method it is necessary that woody, spindly growth be avoided and the plants promoted to vigorous, bushy formation. It is advisable to allow approximately 140 days from the date of sowing seed to the edible maturity of the first developed "fruits." In other words, seed sown the last week in March brings eggplants to harvest size in late August.

This long growing season may, of course, be further prolonged by dry weather in midsummer. Having plenty of moisture-holding organic matter in the soil and irrigating when the soil becomes dry will stimulate growth and improve eggplant quality. It is advisable to respect the sensitive habits of this vegetable and not move the plants to their final growing place until the soil is warm, preferably after early tomato plants are set out in May. In the meantime the plants should be hardened in the coldframe by judicious ventilation and introduction of direct sunshine by removal of the soil. In addition commercial fertilizers are usually needed, a mixture ranging near a 8-10-8 strength, broadcast and worked into the top soil before plants are set out. Many commercial growers apply as much as a ton of fertilizer to the acre, although 1,200 to 1,400 pounds may prove sufficient—2 1/4 to 3 1/4 pounds per 100 square feet.

Plea beetles, small brown to black bugs that jump about actively, may attack eggplants early, gnawing many small holes in the leaves. Dusting infested plants promptly with rotenone is recommended. Unless these pests are killed off before they injure the leaves severely, plant stunting may result.

If dark green or other shade of plant lice infest the plants at any

COURT LIFTS BAN ON MERGER

New York, April 15 (AP)—An Appellate court decision has lifted a ban on the proposed merger of the Congregational Christian churches and the Evangelical and Reformed church.

Proposed merger of the two Protestant denominations, with a total total membership of almost two million, was restrained two years ago by state Supreme Court Justice stage of growth, kill them off at once with a spray of Black Leaf 40 in soapy water or fresh nicotine dust applied when the air is still.

Eggplant will be usually passed on in the soil by potatoes, peppers or tomatoes. Long rotations to allow at least three years between any of these relate crops is a wise precaution in preventing wilt.

In recent years housewives are finding many recipes for preparing eggplant. And with these culinary advances the once lowly eggplant is gradually gaining a more prominent place in home gardens, a place its merits have long deserved.

Is there an ACCIDENT in YOUR calendar?

You hope not. But hoping is not enough!

Last year—the worst in 10 for traffic fatalities—37,500 people met death on the highways. They, too, had hoped that life would not end for them abruptly.

There is something you can do to avoid this needless tragedy—KNOW AND OBEY TRAFFIC LAWS. Such laws are common-sense rules of human conduct, plus expert engineering experience—and they are designed to protect YOU.

Drive within posted speed limits. Come to a halt at stop signs. Don't try to beat traffic lights. Note the highway markers and follow their messages of safety. Don't pass other cars on curves . . . on hills . . . or in no-passing zones. Signal when you are going to turn or stop suddenly. Slow down at sundown. Make allowances for weather conditions.

Above all, be guided by the great "unwritten" laws—caution . . . self control . . . and co.

This message in the interest of highway safety is one of a series prepared and disseminated by the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association and the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue.

SCHOOL BOARD

college in high school, and that in itself is going to greatly increase the student body. It looks like we are going to have Selective Service with us for a good many years. That means that every male is going into service when he is 19. And the only thing he can do with that year between high school and service is to go to school. That in itself will be a big boost toward the establishment of a sort of junior college grade in high school. In addition we have more and more subjects, and the high school is, sooner or later going to have to be extended another year or so in order to get everything in."

Doctor Keesfauver told the directors: "Judging by the present population of the joint school district, and the way it is expanding, if the same rate of growth continues, we will need a 1250-seat auditorium within eight years. That's why I think 1,500 seats is a minimum because we don't want to build an auditorium that will be outgrown in a few years."

Award Fence Contract

The Cyclone Fence company of Harrisburg was awarded the bid for construction of the approximately 500 feet of six foot fence at the Lincoln school. The Cyclone fence company bid $1,790 for construction of 450 feet of fence, "more or less." The board held that about 50 feet additional will be needed. The Preble company of Harrisburg bid $1,935 to install Stewart Chain link fence and the Wayne Iron Works of Wayne, Pa., bid $1,874. Members of the board who figured the additional footage needed under Cyclone's bid said it still was the lowest of the three.

The contract for plating "black top" over the lawn at Lincoln school inside the fence went to the Hancock Construction company, which bid $3,195. The only other bidder,

John D. Teeter and Sons, bid $3,945.

Decision to purchase 550 bus stop signs was made by the joint school board committee. The number was determined on report by the various districts of the number of signs they will need for their own bus routes.

Nurse, Teachers Quit

Resignations of three teachers were accepted "with regret." The letters of resignation of all three were read by Mrs. Sydney Poppay, chairman of the teacher committee, and the teacher committee was directed to seek replacements. All of the resignations will be effective with the end of the school year. The resignations were from School Nurse Mrs. Grover Ruder, who said she plans to join her husband in Germany; Mrs. J. Blaine Salter, teacher in the third grade at Meade school, who plans to join her husband in Philadelphia, and Mrs. Edith P. Reinhart, instructor in physical education, who listed no reason for her resignation.

The board adopted daylight saving time for the jointure's schools, starting April 28, and agreed to continue meetings of the board and executive committee at 8 p.m. except during June and July when the meetings will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Income of the district during March was listed as $81,285.36 and expenditures, $41,106.37, leaving a balance $20,178.99. Receipts in the athletic fund at the high school totaled $990.83 of which $915.93 was the balance from the preceding month. Expenditures were $264.30, leaving a balance of $726.53, according to the report of Treasurer Fred G. Troxell. The activities fund of the high school showed deposits of $2,064.87 and withdrawals of $2,302.37 during March leaving a balance of $9,434.75, according to the report of Treasurer Robert C. Diehl. The cafeteria report showed receipts of $3,083.55, and expenditures of $2,533.34, leaving a balance of $550.21. A total of $988.20 was reported in the reserve fund.

of the several fire companies; uniform regulations for the control of traffic and policing at fires and other emergencies and a program of education for fire police in their responsibilities and duties.

Police Endorse Group
Mr. Myers said that the new organization has the endorsement and support of the state police and the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction.

Sgt. Joseph E. Temple, officer in charge of the Gettysburg substation of the state police, said duties of fire police, as outlined in the original act, were extended in Act 368 approved in May, 1949.

He said that any volunteer fire company in any city, borough, town or township may nominate any of its members as special fire police, such nominees to be confirmed by the burgess or the chairman of the chairman of the board of commissioners or supervisors.

"They shall, when so confirmed and sworn, have full power to regulate traffic and keep crowds under control at or in the vicinity of any fire on which their companies are in attendance and to exercise such other police powers as are necessary to facilitate and prevent interference with the work of the firemen," Sgt. Temple said.

Have Police Powers
"In addition, they shall have all police powers necessary to perform their duties when functioning as special fire police at parades, accidents, floods or other emergencies, at the request of the governing body of city or town."

Sgt. Temple said that if Gettysburg was having a parade, the burgess of Gettysburg could request fire police from Cashtown or any other company in the county to assist. He warned fire police, however, not to abuse or exceed their authority.

Other speakers included Carl Fenninger, York, secretary of the state fire police organization, and Harry Thomas, Lancaster county, past state president.

Invited to Convention
Mr. Fenninger said the state association was formed in 1948 with firemen of four counties as members and now has a membership from 14 counties of more than 8,000. He gave details of organization and operation of the state and other county organizations.

Mr. Thomas commended Adams county for the large attendance at the meeting, and invited Adams county fire police to attend the third annual convention of the state association in Lancaster May 25. He also discussed details of organization and equipment, including the need for uniforms, badges, whistles, lights and other equipment.

Following the meeting in the court house, refreshments were served by the Gettysburg fire company at the fire engine house, East Middle street.

college in high school, and that in itself is going to greatly increase the student body. It looks like we are going to have Selective Service with us for a good many years. That means that every male is going into service when he is 19. And the only thing he can do with that year before he goes to school. That in itself will be a big boost toward the establishment of a sort of junior college grade in high school. In addition we have more and more subjects, and the high school is sooner or later going to have to be extended another year or so in order to get everything in.

Doctor Kaeuffer told the directors: "Judging by the present population of the joint school district, and the way it is expanding, if the same rate of growth continues, we will need a 1250-seat auditorium within eight years. That's why I think 1,500 seats is a minimum because we don't want to build an auditorium that will be outgrown in a few years."

Award Fence Contract

The Cyclone Fence company of Harrisburg was awarded the bid for construction of the approximately 500 feet of six foot fence at the Lincoln school. The Cyclone fence company bid $1,790 for construction of 450 feet of fence, "more or less." The board held that about 50 feet additional will be needed. The Preble company of Harrisburg bid $1,935 to install Stewart Chain link fence and the Wayne Iron Works of Wayne, Pa., bid $1,874. Members of the board who figured the additional footage needed under Cyclone's bid said it still was the lowest of the three.

The contract for placing "black top" over the lawn at Lincoln school inside the fence went to the Hancock Construction company, which bid $3,195. The only other bidder,

John D. Teeter and Sons, bid $3,945.

Decision to purchase 550 bus stop signs was made by the joint school board committee. The number was determined on report by the various districts of the number of signs they will need for their own bus routes.

Nurse, Teachers Quit

Resignations of three teachers were accepted "with regret." The letters of resignation of all three were read by Mrs. Sydney Poppay, chairman of the teacher committee, and the teacher committee was directed to seek replacements. All of the resignations will be effective with the end of the school year. The resignations were from School Nurse Mrs. Grover Ridler, who said she plans to join her husband in Germany; Mrs. J. Blaine Salter, teacher in the third grade at Meade school, who plans to join her husband in Philadelphia, and Mrs. Edith P. Reinhardt, instructor in physical education, who listed no reason for her resignation.

The board adopted daylight saving time for the jointure's schools, starting April 28, and agreed to continue meetings of the board and executive committee at 8 p.m. except during June and July when the meetings will begin at 8:30 p.m. Income of the district during March was listed as $61,285.36 and expenditures, $41,106.37, leaving a balance $20,178.99. Receipts in the athletic fund at the high school totaled $990.83 of which $915.93 was the balance from the preceding month. Expenditures were $264.30, leaving a balance of $726.53, according to the report of Treasurer Fred G. Troxell. The activities fund of the high school showed deposits of $2,064.87 and withdrawals of $2,302.37 during March leaving a balance of $9,434.75, according to the report of Treasurer Robert C. Diehl. The cafeteria report showed receipts of $3,083.55, and expenditures of $2,333.34, leaving a balance of $550.31. A total of $988.30 was reported in the reserve fund.

Collateral

Banking IN EVERYDAY LANGUAGE

We make loans on security of acceptable stocks and bonds; the pledge of thrift account passbooks; the cash value of life insurance policies; warehouse receipts, bills of lading, trust receipts, and chattel mortgages.

HERE'S WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU

When you put up collateral, you obtain needed credit quickly—and at the lowest borrowing cost.

Order it today!

New Holland's Great New "77" Baler is breaking all sales records. It's the only one-man baler with a capacity of up to 10 tons an hour!

Farmers faced with the high cost and scarcity of labor are mechanizing faster than at any other time in history. And that's why it'll pay you right now to take a good look at your present baling equipment.

Can it be operated by one man—or does it require two, three or four to get in the hay? Have you a baler that'll handle up to 10 tons an hour—or only half as much?

Compare New Holland's high capacity "77" twin baler with any other on the market. No other baler has a record of baling leadership to compare with New Holland's—more than 10 years' experience as America's pioneer and leading manufacturer of automatic pick-up balers!
